

Fall 2016 DEADLINES FOR THE 2017 KOHL AWARDS

Outstanding Wisconsin Leadership Award

September 23rd – Nomination forms are due to the jurisdiction or submitted online

September 27th – Diocese/jurisdictions receive all online nominations from WCRIS

On or before October 11th – Jurisdictions send out applications nominated principals

November 7th – Nominated principals should aim to submit their applications to their central office with enough time for the central office to complete a selection process, if applicable. Official application deadline below.

December 2nd – Principals must submit their completed applications to WCRIS no later than December 2, 2016. This is NOT a flexible deadline. With NO exceptions, WCRIS can NOT accept after this deadline.

Teacher Fellowship

September 23rd – Nomination forms are due to the jurisdiction or submitted online.

September 27th – Diocese/jurisdictions receive all online nominations from WCRIS.

On or before October 11th – Jurisdictions send out applications and online password to nominated teacher's school principal to be given to the teacher.

November 4th – Teachers should aim to have their applications to their principals for processing. Principals should submit teacher applications to their central office with enough time for the central office to complete their semi-finalist selection process (suggested date: November 7, 2016) Official application deadline below.

On or before November 23rd – Applications must be received by the diocese/ jurisdiction's central office for review and final selection on or before November 23, 2016. Each application must have one or more nominations attached. Diocese/jurisdiction's central offices should maintain this as an inflexible deadline, with no exceptions.

*Please inform your school that they should not send applications directly to WCRIS.

December 9th – Each diocese/jurisdiction will submit its finalists to WCRIS no later than December 9, 2016. This is NOT a flexible deadline. With NO exceptions, WCRIS can NOT accept after this deadline.

Student Excellence Scholarship

Early September – Dioceses/jurisdictions provide their schools with the Student Excellence applications, access to the applications on the WCRIS website, and the Kohl Foundation website. Schools must make applications available to their students. (WCRIS will send out applications as soon as they are available)

On or before November 23rd – Applications must be received by the diocese/jurisdiction for review and final selection on or before November 23, 2016. It is strongly advised that diocese/jurisdiction's central offices maintain this as an inflexible deadline, with no exceptions.

*Please inform your school that they should not send the application directly to WCRIS.

December 9th – Each diocese/jurisdiction will submit its finalists to WCRIS no later than December 9, 2016. This is NOT a flexible deadline. With NO exceptions, WCRIS can NOT accept after this deadline.

Student Initiative Scholarship

Early September – WCRIS will send applications and information directly to the schools listed on this year's rotation schedule. The diocese/jurisdiction will also be notified.

December 9th – Schools in the rotation must submit their application directly to the WCRIS office. While the deadline for this award is more flexible, applications must be received at the WCRIS office no later than January 27, 2017