

Utilize Title Funding for Social Emotional Success

CESA 6 Social Emotional Learning supports equitable access to social-emotional success and mental wellness of all children and the systems that serve them, including students with neurodiversity and those who experience mental health challenges or trauma.

11%

Academics
Students receiving comprehensive social and emotional and emotional learning instruction increased their achievement test scores by 11 percentile points.
www.cesal.org

Value
Columbia University found that an $11 return resulted from each $1 invested in SEL programming.
Teachers College, Columbia University

11:1

Title I

- Trauma Training and Coaching Series (which can include a caregiver component)
- School-wide program implementation (trauma sensitive schools, social emotional learning, school mental health)
- School transition planning support
- Student FBA/BIP Development

Title II

- Allies in Mental Health Education (AMHE) system-wide needs assessment and improvement planning
- Paraprofessional training series supporting neurodiverse students
- SEL Coaching and Consultation
- Depending on Teachers and Staff (DOTS) Training

Title IV

- Crisis Prevention/Intervention Team Training
- CARE Collaborative
- Social Emotional Learning Series Collaborative
- Sources of Strength
- Youth Mental Health First Aid

Details

- CESA 6 can support your needs assessment and strategic planning processes
- Targeted support for your unique needs
- Some services may be allowable under multiple categories
- Service models may include on-site, off-campus and/or virtual to best meet your needs
- Multiple schools can pool resources to meet common professional development needs

920-236-0510
solutions@cesa6.org
cesa6.org/sel

Identify and Prioritize Your School Needs with a Free SEL Consultation